

BRATISLAVA CASTLE

Natália Mišenková O1A

Legend-Table

People compare Bratislava Castle to an overturned table. It has such an appearance, even the four towers on the sides look like the legs of a table. And as the reputation confirms, he has paid for it in the past.

- When people were still living at Bratislava Castle, it sometimes happened that they broke up in the morning. How if she slept on the bed and not them on the bed. The dishes and the cups in the cupboards were also broken. It always happened only during one night a year. For a long time no one knew what was going on. It also bothered the lady of the castle, when everything broke again the night before the robe Pavol Pálfi was to come to the castle. She called the woman from Vrakun, the old witch and the sorceress. She picked up pieces of glass, threw them into the fire and watched, watched.

„It's a Klinger!“ she called. „What, what kind of Klinger?“ the lady asked. Once a year he travels from Sedmohradsko to Germany. On a long journey, he gets tired, grabs the castle in his hand, and turns it on the turrets like a table to rest. He turns him back in the morning. „And what will we do?“ she asks sad castle lady Žofia. „I'll try to send him a message, but I don't know if he's listening to me. I'm just a second-class witch.“ The white crow flew to Sedmohradsko with a request. Since then, the paintings on the Bratislava Castle no longer fell from the wall, the dishes didn't break.

Legend about the well

The well at Bratislava Castle is one of the important parts of the complex. It is located in the cellar and is 85 meters deep.

- The well at Bratislava Castle is also proud of its reputation with a happy ending. It is said that the well was taken care of by the waterman Janko, who dragged water for the whole castle on a daily basis. One day a rare visitor came to the castle, so Janko had to drag more water than usually. As he tired of pulling out the last bucket, an elderly old man, Loktibrada, appeared beside him. He asked Janko for water and he did not refuse to help him. The old man drank and drank and drank, and when he finished, he generously rewarded Janko's willingness with a bucket full of gold.

Legend- Unrequited love

- Another legend tells of the castle lord's daughter, who fell in love with the commander of the Turkish troops besieging the castle. She sent a messenger to him across a secret passage under the Dunaj, but when the Mohammedan laughed indecently at her love, the messenger cut off his head.

Who is Mohamedan? Is it a person who professes Islam.

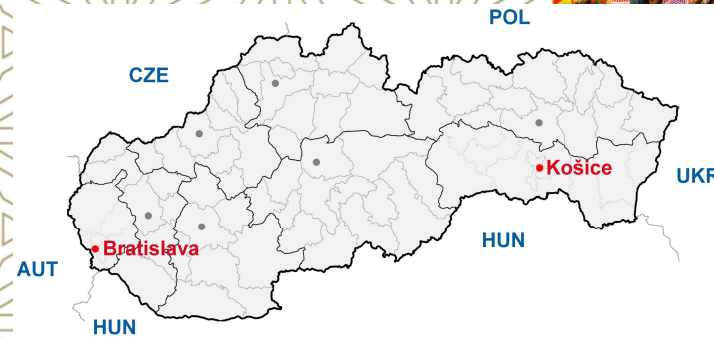

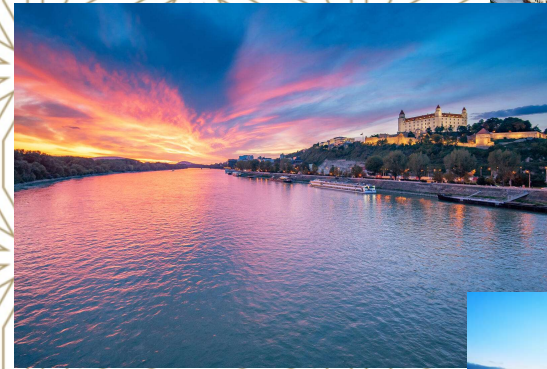

Information about Bratislava Castle

- has been a symbol of Bratislava for centuries
- is a set of buildings in the historic area
- located – Old Town right in the center of Bratislava
- the beginnings of today's castle date back to the 13th century
- from 1811, when it burnt down, until 1953, when its repair was finally started, the castle was just a ruin and it was even thought that it would be completely leveled with the ground and new buildings would be built in this place

Information about Bratislava

- in the west of Slovakia
- capital city of Slovakia
- the largest city in Slovakia
- adjacent to the following countries: Austria, Poland, Hungary, the Czech Republic
- the river Dunaj flows through the city

Quiz

- Where is Bratislava?

- A in the East
- B on the South
- C in the West

- What river flows through Bratislava?

- A Torysa
- B Dunaj
- C Hornád

- What is the symbol of Bratislava?

- A river Dunaj
- B Bratislava Castle
- C Elizabeth's crown

- What do they compare Bratislava Castle to?

- A to the chair
- B to the crown
- C to the table

- One of the legends says that...

- A that people woke up broken
- B they had no problems
- C that people had a headache

- Who is Mohamedan?

- A Is it a person who lives alone.
- B Is it a person who is a vegetarian.
- C Is it a person who professes Islam.

Quiz-Correct answers

- Where is Bratislava?

A in the East

B on the South

C in the West

- What river flows through Bratislava?

A Torysa

B Dunaj

C Hornád

- What is the symbol of Bratislava?

A river Dunaj

B Bratislava castle

C Elizabeth's crown

- What do they compare Bratislava Castle to?

A to the chair

B to the crown

C to the table

- One of the legends says that...

A that people woke up broken

B they had no problems

C that people had a headache

- Who is Mohamedan?

A Is it a person who lives alone.

B Is it a person who is a vegetarian.

C Is it a person who professes Islam.

THANKS FOR WATCHING :)

